Procedures, shall mean information disclosure posted on the website designated by the FSC.

Article 7 The Subsequent Measures for Supervising Capital Lending and the Procedures for Handling Overdue Lending

- (1) After the funds are advanced, the Company shall keep monitoring on the financial condition, business condition, credit of the borrower and guarantor and change of the value of collateral provided for the borrowing, if any. The Company shall inform the borrower, at least three months prior to the maturity date, to repay on the maturity date. If there is any material change, the person in-charge shall report such change to the Chairman of the Board of Directors immediately and handle the relevant matters properly in accordance with chairman's instruction.
- (2) When the borrower repays the advances on or prior to the maturity date, the Company will cancel and return the evidence of borrowing such as the promissory note to the borrower or proceed with the mortgage discharge registration with respect to the collateral, if and only if the principal and interest calculated by the Company have been fully repaid.
- (3) If the borrower fails to repay on the due date, the Company may dispose of the collateral and/or ask the guarantor for repayment in accordance with the applicable laws and regulations.
- (4) If the relevant capital lending is required to be submitted to the board of directors for discussion, such lending shall be approved by a majority of all members of the Audit Committee and submitted to the board of directors for resolution. If such lending is not approved by a majority of all members of the Audit Committee, alternatively, such lending may be approved by two-thirds of all directors, provided that in such case, the resolutions adopted by the Audit Committee shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting of the board of directors.
- (5) "All members of the Audit Committee" and "All Directors" referred to in the preceding paragraph shall mean the actual number of the committee members/directors.

Article 8 Penalty

If any manager or person in-charge of capital lending, due to his/her negligence, violates the Handling Procedures and as a result causes serious damages to the Company, such manager or person shall report to his/her direct superior and the most senior decision-making officer of the finance division immediately. Such manager or person's violation shall be handled in accordance with the relevant internal personnel and administration regulations of the Company. If it is found that such manager or person intentionally violated the Handling Procedures and as a result caused damages to the Company, the Company may, in addition to the punishment made in accordance with its relevant internal regulations, require such manager or person to compensate the Company's loss. The punishment and how to handle the above mentioned violation shall be reported to the next Board of Directors meeting.

Article 9 The Procedures for Supervising Capital Lending by Subsidiaries

- (1) If the Company's subsidiary intends to lend capital to the third party, such subsidiary shall adopt its own handling procedures for capital lending²² in accordance with the "Rules Governing Capital Lending and Endorsements and Guarantees by Public Companies" promulgated by the FSC, after consulting with the Company's opinions. Subsidiary's Handling Procedures shall be approved by the subsidiary's Audit Committee and/or Board of Directors and/or the shareholders' meeting. The same shall apply to amendments to such Handling Procedures.
- (2) The Company shall supervise its subsidiaries to check whether or not the handling procedures for capital lending are in compliance with the relevant law and regulations or not and whether the subsidiary lends capital in accordance with such subsidiary's own handling procedures for capital lending transactions.
- (3) The Company's internal auditing personnel shall review and check the examination reports produced by each subsidiary.

Article 10 Miscellaneous
